From the Enterprise.

T. S. Paschall and wife and Mrs. Tom Paschall left for Eldorado Springs Saturday to spend a few weeks. J. E. Barron and wife came back from Eldorado Springs Monday where they had been on account of Mr. Barron's health.

Jake Spitzberger and wife returned Saturday from Eldorado Springs where they have been on account of Mrs. Spitzberger's health. F. M. Axtell delivered 22 head of sheep at the stock yards here Wednesday that averaged 20 1/2 pounds each. Mr. Axtell wants to know if any of his Missouri brothers can beat that.

While employed in unloading a car of sand Monday about noon Will Dye and Leslie Finley were overcome by heat. The boys were given proper treatment but it was a couple of days before they were feeling like smiling.

John A. Hall, of Pleasanton, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall, of Amoret, were guests at the A. H. Hall home Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. E. P. Hawkins was called to the Asa Rosler home near Burdette Friday on account of the serious illness of her brother, Geo. Walley.

Roy Rosamond, of Butler, was here Monday and contracted for the west room of the Syndicate building and will put in a racket stock about the middle of September. Mr. Rosamond has lately been in the same business in Haddam, Kansas. He comes to us well recommended as a business man and citizen and we extend to him a hearty welcome to our business circles.

Virginia.

Since the Dry Army has disbanded, their chief, C. W. Wolfe, has completely changed his uniform, even shaved his whiskers off. Some think he has changed his political way of thinking.

C. A. Wallace drove the horse that brought John Winburn's remains from Amoret to the Virginia cemetery.

Truman Gilbert's new barn is a nice improvement to his farm.

Mr. Mino is painting the Virginia school house.

Andrew Simpson has the hedge fence around his farm trimmed up in nice shape.

Dick Wolfe is making a concrete cistern.

Geo. Rubel is building concrete walks around his house.

Volna McFadden left Thursday to visit relatives near Los Angeles, Cal.

Dick Craig, of Tulsa, Ind. Ty., who visited kinfolks here a few days, returned home last week. His daughter, Vera, who came with him, will visit here for some time.

Ben Comford and daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, of Mulberry, attended the funeral of John Winburn Friday.

Clyde Denning is on the way moving back from Western Kansas with team and wagon.

James I. Wolfe, of Burlington, Kan., spent Sabbath with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wolfe.

Miss Mary Whinery and Albert Allen were appointed delegates by the Virginia Endeavor Society to attend the C. E. district convention to be held in Kansas City Aug. 28-30.

Endeavor at the Virginia Christian Church next Sunday evening at 7:30. Topic—Foreign Missions: Cyrus Hamlin and Missions in Turkey—I Cor. 9:13-23. Leader, Miss Maggie McCann. Every one is invited to attend.

Sterling Pierce and Pete Jundy left this neighborhood Sunday morning on horseback for parts unknown, possibly Wichita, Kan. Any information in regard to their whereabouts will be gladly received by friends.

Ollie Walker, wife and son visited Mr. Walker's parents southeast of Butler last Sabbath.

Mr. John Winburn was tragically killed, while carrying the mail last Thursday, Aug. 20. His horse is supposed to have become frightened somewhere near the Hotwaters school house, for Mr. Winburn was found hanging in the cart in the stable on the M. D. Maloney farm. The gate being open, the horse ran into the barn and was found there bled to death. He was buried in the Virginia grave yard Friday the 21st.

He was born in Kentucky. He was about 36 years old. He was married to Miss Ida Cuzick about four years ago. He was a quiet citizen, loved by all his neighbors. It will never be known how he was thrown out of the car. His foot caught between the spring and box and hung there, found there, poor fellow. No one knows whether he was killed suddenly or his life dragged out.

Jame Foy, of Rotan, Texas, came in Monday to see his cousin, G. W. Park. They had not met since 1857, when Aaron took him to Tiffin, Ohio. He drifted to Texas before the war and carried mail for the Confederacy, and when the war closed, carried for the north. He is a solid Democrat of the Prohibition type. He says they do not fool with men who sell whiskey, contrary to law. They make the dive men obey the law. Democrats believe that the law should be obeyed. They are not like the Republicans over in Kansas, wink at many violating law. He wanted to know how Texas came out at the primary election July 25. The signal said they voted 418 for State wide Pro. The Republican state convention declared against State Pro. Of course, we expect that of the children of the father of the saloon that is the Republican party, has been 46 years. Children should obey their parents in all things that are right. AARON.

Passaic.

We have been having some warm weather, of late.

People are quite busy at this time plowing for wheat. There seems to be a prospect of a larger acreage this fall than last. We presume the price of wheat has something to do with it.

M. Perry, who lives east of here in the Bethel neighborhood, was hauling coal on Friday and Saturday, preparatory for thrashing his grain. Uncle Eph Mosler has been doing some papering of late, and, of course, it helps the appearance of the rooms to have a new coat on.

Uncle Dick Wilcox has commenced to build his barn, and has the frame of the main building about up. He has got his insurance. He was insured in Prairie City.

Rose Conard is not feeling very well. He is complaining of his side. We trust nothing serious will result.

Mrs. Rose Conard and daughters, Iva, Maggie and little Martha, were in Butler on Tuesday, going to see the dentist. She has been having some trouble with her teeth.

J. B. Rice and son, Dayton, were in Butler Tuesday transacting some business. He is our assessor for this year, and he has his assessing about completed.

Grandma Meyer was a caller at the parsonage last of the week. She is going to remain on the farm until fall, and then she will make her home with her children.

Our Sunday School seems to be getting along all right. They seemed to have quite a discussion over soul and the evil spirit from the Lord, and the question was asked the superintendent if the person who committed suicide was saved. He seemed to want a little time to consider it.

Harry Brummett ran a pine splinter in his hand and has not been able to get it out at this writing. We hope nothing of a serious nature will result.

Rev. Glendenning returned from his appointment at Mt. Zion on Tuesday morning. He came in on his bicycle. We presume the roads are in good shape now for that purpose.

Wray Packer has been on the sick list again. He was improving, but was taken sick again, and they phoned into the doctor for advice. We hope he will be careful and not get down bedfast.

There seems to be several deaths around. This is a good time for people to be careful and take care of themselves.

J. W. Packer's brother and his friend returned to Chicago, Illinois, last Friday to resume their work. They had a two weeks' vacation, and they came to Missouri to spend it, and they surely enjoyed it, and perhaps will want to come again.

They are still thrashing around, but we presume most of it is through with.

Our pastor and his family were at Altona, left here on Wednesday and returned on Monday. Of course, they had a good time.

Mrs. John McFadden, of Iola, Kansas, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brummett, this week. Her many friends will be glad to greet her again. May her stay be pleasant among us.

The fourth quarterly conference is to be at Bethel the 30 and 31st of this month, we understand.

Foster Notes.

Messadams Heckadon and Clark were visiting their husbands, Sunday, who are cleaning up the Golden Medal.

Mrs. Newkirk visited with Mrs. Bailey Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim and Miss Blanche Cather have returned to their home in Shawnee, Okla.

Miss Clara Mudd who has been visiting Miss May Cobb returned to her home in Rich Hill, Thursday.

Messrs. Claude and Harry Allen, of Butler, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Wm. Wingerd.

Grandpa Oresar who has been very sick is improving.

Mr. Jno. McCullough went to Butler Saturday and returned home the same evening by way of Rich Hill.

Rev. McFarlin filled his appointment Sunday at the Christian church. Delmar Webb has gone to Okla., to buy a farm.

Uncle Robert Livingston and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Jno. Belk.

Aunt Jane Shelton who has been on the sick list for several weeks is slowly improving.

Logan Brisco and family were visiting his mother, grandma Brisco, Sunday.

The New Home mine has been shut down for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Ed. Basterion has had a very sore throat.

Mrs. Warren Littlefield's daughter, granddaughter, and great grandchildren are visiting her from Iowa. Miss Luella Brogan of Pleasanton, Kansas, is visiting relatives here.

Geo. Henson is going to raise another watermelon patch next year for the little boys, for it pays.

Little Curtis Morris is visiting his grandma, Mrs. Sue Morris, at Eldorado Springs.

Some unknown friend has gathered Mrs. Will Stover's grandma Badgett's, and Grandma McCall's fruit by starlight. They ought to come and settle up.

Messrs. Will Stover, Jno. McCullough and Frank and David Williams went to the river and had a fish fry. Will said he caught one so large he could not get it out of the water. He brought one fish home for his dog, you—no.

Mrs. Newkirk has the Golden and White Wyandotte chickens. It will pay anybody that wants to buy to see her flock. DINK.

Altona.

We had a nice shower of rain on Friday night and all appreciated it.

Corn is looking very well in places, but in some places there will not be very much.

George Miller's father left for Springfield, Mo., and intends to go into Arkansas and perhaps spend the winter in a warmer climate.

T. R. Cummings received a message on Sunday that his daughter, Mrs. Day could not live and his wife left on the noon train for her bedside at Kansas City. We trust she will recover.

E. G. Stiff was in Adrian on Wednesday and took Rev. Glendenning and family out home with him, and they visited around over the community until Monday and then returned home.

There was a Sunday School picnic at Vanderveer's grove on Thursday, the 20th inst., and a good time was had by all and had a fine dinner.

A nice program was rendered, some nice recitations and especially that of Miss Ruby Ricketts. It represented a little child whose mother was not at home and night coming on, so she went up her father and finds him in a sad mood. It was well rendered. The exercises were good all the way through. The Helping Hand had a stand on the grounds and they put into the treasurer's hands about $10.00 clear of expenses. They expect to repair the church here soon.

George Buckels was in Adrian on Monday transacting business.

Ed. Owens is hauling corn to Adrian. Had two loads in on Monday.

J. B. Broughton took some oats to town Monday.

Frank Chapman was in Adrian Monday.

D. W. Chapman was here Monday with some trade. DINK.

Rich Hill Notes.

The Review.

The Warning plow passed through Rich Hill, Monday from the Nyhart ranch of Mr. Warnsing to the Loeb ranch, where it is expected to break a lot of sod land. It tears up six furrows at a time and does good work.

The big dredge boat on the southeast end of the drainage ditch is reported to have struck a snag in the form of a ledge of rock, requiring a vast amount of blasting and greatly retarding the work of excavating.

W. C. Hedden was in town today to negotiate for transportation for his wife to Wyoming. Mr. Hedden is counting on a good big time during Mrs. H's absence. She will depart in a few days on a visit to her sons and other relatives. Mr. Hedden will visit all the shows, the state fair, horse races and basket dinners within reach.

Merwin.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Alva Huston, a girl.

Jim Hayes left last week for Nebraska to accept a position with the Kansas City oil company.

On the sick list are John M. Sapp and Mrs. Thos. Kessler.

Ruth, the little four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper King, had the misfortune to break her arm Friday by a fall. Proper attention was given her and it is expected that she will be about again soon.

Amoret.

E. I. Rush is building a new residence.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Hays Boots, a girl.

Alec Malone and wife of Rich Hill have been visiting at the home of J. W. Rogers.

Mrs. W. G. Reed accompanied her children to Baldwin, Kansas, last week where they will enter school.

Mrs. Ira Scroggins died Wednesday night of last week. She was 111 only one week.
